

Code of Conduct Agreements:

Code of Conduct Forms are already required by some clubs and JSA recommends that each junior program consider requiring similar responsibility agreements for each sailor, parent and coach in your program. Sample documents for your review are located in the same folder as this document.